Booked a table for lunchtime and so glad I did. The menu offered the typical country fayre, including various pork pies with salad, quiches, soups, jacket pots, wide range of sandwiches. Portions were generous and food was locally sourced, supporting independent suppliers. Set in the grounds of a historical priory/country estate, though the priory itself is no longer visible. Excellent views of the local woodland and... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather. What aponinaa doesn't like about Felley Priory Tea Room:

Well expectation was nice lunch and reality. Angry lady cone and don't tell me properly where to sit. Then we pic.

We wait 15 minutes for our order get taken and another 15 minutes for get just soup. Our tea and coffee never arrived. Soup taste was nothing awesome and mushy scone from microwave. Now I still sit here with empty plate, being ignored by everyone and guess I can go home. Nobody want me pay for can soup. Omg... read more.
