We stayed at the hotel for one night as part of our motorcycle tour of Wales. The room was very clean and comfortable. All the staff were friendly and welcoming. We enjoyed an evening meal in the restaurant very pleased we had booked well in advance. The food was casual dining, good portion sizes and well presented. For motorcyclists, the parking at the back of the hotel is a bit soft (very small pebbles/shingle) it... read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Nigel J doesn't like about The Grapes:

After having many pleasant experiences in this establishment, I receive a rib eye steak cooked rare rather than medium rare as I requested, peas were cold, and the oven chips were overcooked to burnt, the best part of the meal was the vine tomatoes which in my opinion doesn't justify a £25 price tag, I flagged up that a pint of lager was missing from my bill only to be presented three day's later with an inflated t... The fresh and succulent juices listed on the drinks menu optimally complement the meals of the restaurant, Furthermore, the visitors of the establishment enjoy the extensive variety of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional dishes and love the typical English cuisine.
