The place is a little bit tired, but homely and has a very village pub feel to it. I loved the Arran shaped tables and mirrors! We sat in the conservatory which was spacious and felt very family friendly. We loved the menus which were mounted on vinyl records we were very pleased to get Queen and AC/DC! Food portions were really generous, our kids love the fish and chips and Mac and cheese, I had delicious scampi and... read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Downski doesn't like about Dining At Ormidale:

we visited and were warned you wont finish the meal, they were not wrong! We did have to wait over an hour for our food as it was so busy, but its in a lovely setting and when the food finally arrived there was mountains of it.

One small constructive criticism, there genuinely was too much food and we wasted a good amount. 2/3rds of the size would still have been generous. Lovely staff too read more. You can at Dining At Ormidale from North Ayrshire try delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, Furthermore, the drinks list in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Furthermore, there are several typically British dishes on the card that give every Englishman abroad the feeling of being at home, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
