We arrived at 11.48 and the cafe wasn't busy. We realised lunch didn't start service until 12 but asked could we place our order for soups and they could serve us when they were ready. We were told NO! Can't see it would have hurt as all they had to do was put the order through the till, we paid and they delivered our drinks food when they were ready. Soups were £8 each so not cheap for soup bread and with drinks the... read more.
