2 years ago we moved to harleston from romford, we eat regularly in the city. I will say we have always enjoyed eating, and the environment here at jd's. the personal is extremely helpful and pleasant, we recommend you to visit JD disciples on their list. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. WLAN is available free of charge. What jodagriff doesn't like about J.d.young:

Vibrant atmosphere, friendly service, food mainly OK but my custard tart dessert was by some way the worst plate of food I've ever been given! About 3 inches across and barely half an inch deep, the vertical part of the pastry tart was hard. The bottom tasted uncooked. The thin layer of custard was solid and rubbery. My choice was influenced by 'rhubarb infused with grenadine'. Not a piece of the fruit in sight just... read more. At J.d.young from South Norfolk you have the opportunity to enjoy delicious vegetarian meals, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was used, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide diversity of beers from the region and the whole world. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the large selection of traditional dishes and indulge in the taste of England.
