A lovely spot in the Cathedral gardens on a lovely sunny day. Staff were helpful, careful, given Covid-19 requirements, and friendly. The food was lovely, and ethically sourced. We would visit again. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Peter M doesn't like about Cathedral Cafe:

On a visit to see the wonderful Christmas trees we called at the cafe where the staff were working under pressure. I ordered soup which was served lukewarm in a cardboard cup with a plastic teaspoon which seemed to be at odds with the ecological message of the tree display. The soup came with sliced bread and no butter. A dismal experience. read more. A visit to Cathedral Cafe becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, In the morning a hearty brunch is offered here. Besides small snacks and sweet pieces, we also offer cold and hot drinks and cakes, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the large diversity of traditional meals and indulge in the taste of England.
