Had sunday lunch at this pub with my husband and my parents. The food was excellent and plenty of it. You could have other meals apart from a sunday lunch. I had the roast pork, my husband had the roast beef, my father had chicken and my mum had vegetarian lasagne. The landlord, Shane was an excellent host and not in your face. There was a good selection on the sweet menu and we all had apple crumble and custard, bea... read more. What debbie I doesn't like about Britannia Inn:

Went here for a lunch time meal with some work colleagues on a business lunch. How embarrassing as had seen some great photos advertising delicious food. How wrong could you get with that one.... The food was horrendous. We were served chips that had obviously been cooked the day before and then warmed up in a microwave. The sandwich fillings were non-existent. This is such a shame as prior to the pub being taken ove... read more.
