I absolutely cannot fault the Nags Head. Friends and family have stayed at the hotel on more than one occasion and they were all made to feel so welcome from the start. Special thanks go to Lou for always being helpful, friendly and going that extra mile. The breakfasts are cracking and the restaurant provides proper home cooked food which is delicious. It's makes a fabulous change from chain restaurants and hotels. read more. What User doesn't like about The Nags Head:

i went there last week with two girl mates who agreed that the service was one of the worst we have ever encountered- so much so that I had to write this review! The waitresses seemed annoyed with us when we ordered, forgot what we had ordered, didn't apologise and then we asked not to pay the service charge, she threw our change down on the table at us. Just so rude read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Nags Head in Huntingdonshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian meals.
