At the time we were looking for somewhere for lunch their website was down and we nearly didn't go there because of a lack of information. However we are very glad we did. The service was incredibly friendly and helpful, especially regarding a gluten free need. Food was excellent we had jacket potatoes with brie and chutney, and the frittata of the day. The room is very nicely decorated and there was a lovely cool br... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Olive

Grove:

Really disappointing visit this afternoon. Waited to be served as sign said. Totally ignored by young waitress even though she saw us. Older lady then asked what we were doing and I replied waiting to be seated. Obviously the wrong answer. When asked which cake was in the cabinet was shown a blackboard with 4 cakes on. Which didn't answer my question. Lady was really quite rude. Young waitress spilt drinks in saucers... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Olive Grove in Cornwall, Isles of Scilly traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here.
