What User doesn't like about The Evergreen Cafe:

On a visit from Devon to see family, this was the second time in a week we visited this newly revamped restaurant. The first time we had coffee and cake which was excellent. This morning we called in early to find a sign advertising cooked breakfast. For only £4.75 we had fried egg, beans, bacon, sausage, hash brown and toast. I could not fault any of it. The quality of the food was only matched by the friendliness o... read more.
