The place from Crewe offers 18 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of £9. This restaurant presents a varied dining experience. While the ambiance is aesthetically pleasing, many patrons noted operational inefficiencies, such as an inadequate drinks menu and lack of cleanliness. The food quality also received mixed feedback; with overcooked chicken disappointing some, yet other dishes, particularly vegetarian options, received praise for their flavor and presentation. Service levels varied, with some highlighting attentive staff and a welcoming atmosphere, while others experienced disorganization and a cold reception. Overall, the establishment offers potential but needs improvements in service and food consistency to match its inviting decor.
