Decided to try here as we were stopping in Luton before flying from the airport tomorrow and my wife loves Arabic food. It's a small cafe style place rather than restaurant but the food is restaurant quality. Kids had half a chicken each along side spiced chips and salad, the plates were huge! We went for a mixed grill that had lamb chops that were superb, chicken wings, chicken shawarma, shish kebab, bread and salad... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What Khalil A doesn't like about Al Quds:

I ordered using Uber eats and had to call them and explain they had sent three portions of chips and one of those was meant to be rice of the kids. After having spent that much money, we had to make something else for the kids. I called them and he had the audacity to blame the Uber eats delivery person when it had nothing to do with him. I called him out on it and said it had nothing to do with him because he didn't... read more. At Al Quds from Luton it's possible to savor delicious vegetarian courses, that were made without any animal meat or fish,

The customers also rave about the fine, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the delights from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Here, the barbecued food is freshly cooked on an open flame.
