We were visiting the historic docks for the first time and saw this place and decided to grab lunch here. Friendly service, chatted to other customers whilst waiting for a freshly cooked, piping hot, and densely filled toasties. Son had the meat feast and declared it the best toasted sandwich ever. That's high praise David. Thank you for a great lunch stop. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What jennie w doesn't like about On Toast:

Bloke who runs it is rude and food was substandard for price. Feel ripped off and insulted all at once. Ordered food and had to listen to him whining about the beautiful docks and running the place down . Such a shame. My advice don't bother. Plenty of good food places to go around this area.
