It's a very cute and cozy place. I'd give it higher rating if they put more effort into making gluten free alternatives. Their gluten free semla (a Swedish traditional pastry) is the worst I've ever tasted. Like a salty rock. Would only have finished it if I was starving. It was given to me in a paper bag which also made it look like a mess. Sjögrens i Backen beats this place big time. read more.
