Had their VKFC on a bap, fantastic taste. Food is great all over. Great place to stop for eating if you driving on that dual carriageway. It's located in a very small town. You might not get a parking there as the road is narrow and there is one way only but this place is totally worth. The lady served with a smile. Thanks Service: Dine in

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Nigel Perkins doesn't like about Village Kitchen:

Unreliable opening times. We wanted breakfast at 7:15 on a Thursday, but they were shut, so we had to make do with something from the Co-op. There was another group of 7 or 8 people who had to do likewise. Someone finally arrived to open up at 7:30, by which time we'd already eaten. read more. The large diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Village Kitchen even more worthwhile, With traditional Indian spices, dishes are tasty and freshly prepared. If you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch awaits you, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
