What User likes about Pied A Terre: Undoubtably one of the best and most harmonious restaurants that my wife and I have ever visited. Very delicious and creatively prepared 8-course menu, very dignified and at the same time cozy ambience. The Service including our host David Moore was very attentif, very nice and always up for a quick chat for all guests. All in all a restaurant that we are very happy to recommend that we will gladly return to at the n... read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge. What User doesn't like about Pied A Terre: The food was not what we were expecting from a Michelin star restaurant. We've been to many ones before and they were all very attentive to details, which was not the case for this one. Thy did not even suggest a wine pairing with the food. They even made us pay for the candle they added as it was a birthday Very disappointing overall though our waiter was very warm and friendly and elevated the experience. read more. At Pied A Terre from London they provide various fine French menus, the restaurant provides but also menus from the European context. There are also light Mediterranean meals on the menu, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
