Good pub food with a reasonable amount of choice. I had one of the specials (chicken and mushroom pie) and my partner had fish and chips, both of which were good. The desserts were a highlight and not too heavy. The staff were friendly and the wait time was short. Prices were quite high but not unexpected given the location.

Very disappointing meal, the veg was hard as nails, I think it had been waved past the boiling water.. the breast of chicken was so dry, I couldn't swallow it. Chips thankfully were nice. The dirty plates remained in front of us whilst a female a male member of staff were busy chatting at the far end of the bar. I might return for a drink but not to eat sadly. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Black Bull Inn in South Lakeland traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Of course, the right drink to accompany a meal is a must; for this purpose, this gastropub offers you a large range of fine, regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine.
