Loved this bar. Great team who are very efficient and lots of choice for beers if you are a fanatic of unheard of brews! Lovely environment and although we didn't eat here the food looked terrific and lots of busy tables some reckon a popular haunt. Just off Temple street area and close to other bars and restaurants so all up a really good couple of hours here. read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the place at no extra cost, and into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather is right, you can also be served outside. What Puggy U doesn't like about Bocca:

Before going to the theatre, we stopped at Bocabar for a quick meal. The menu is varied with burgers, pizza and salads all options. We started with crispy squid (average quality and somewhat lacking in flavour) and ciabatta and Houmous (OK). For the main items we had the Feta green salad and the Smokey poke bowl, the salad was very good as was the poke bowl. The restaurant space is quite noisy and in the winter relat... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Bocca in Bristol, City of traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle. In the morning they serve a tasty breakfast here. Of course, there's also crispy crunchy pizza, baked straight from the oven according to traditional recipes. Also, the guests of the establishment love the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
