We arrived at night and parking was no issue, despite being busy, loads of space! It felt very safe as it was off the main roads, remote but “not too remote”. We were warmly welcomed by reception and “very polite” staff, who even though they were busy, would stop what they were doing to help us. The management had put the heating on in advance which was a really nice touch especially as the nights we’re getting chi... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available for free. What valerieb324 doesn't like about Lumb Farm:

No member of staff wearing a face covering when serving. Difficult to believe they all have exemption certificates do they know there is now legislation for them to do so. Did not feel at all safe to eat here. Went to Christmas luncheon with a group of friends. Lumb Farm informed before hand there was two on our table gluten intolerant. They conveniently forgot when serving mince pies, said they had not been informed... read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a appetizing brunch at Lumb Farm, freely at your own will, The guests of the restaurant also appreciate the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub offers a wide variety of fine and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, Lovers of the British cuisine are impressed by the extensive selection of traditional meals and enjoy the taste of England.
