beautiful Lebanese restaurant with a very eccentric and cute interior. the food was nice overall. my favorite was the lamb kofta kebab. the rosetee and jasmintee were also very aromatic. the baklava can be better. a really good location experience! read more. What Sonia Price doesn't like about Comptoir Libanais London Bridge: comptoir libanais gets a for her cute decoration; but I find their vegan options to blander. I had the falafel packaging (absorption) of this place and thought it was a little dry and it would have used more taste. Perhaps this could have helped by hummus or something similar? either so, not a place where I run back, but would eat there again if someone suggested it because eating is not terrible. In the morning, a diverse brunch is offered at Comptoir Libanais London Bridge in London that you can celebrate according to your mood, Of course, you also have to try the delicious burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. For those who are still undecided, the smell of fresh flatbread and the delicious, sticky delight of fresh baklava might be just the conviction they need - the Middle East is undoubtedly closer than one believes, fine vegetarian meals are also in the menu available.
