What Helena Edwards likes about Clock Tower Brewers Fayre: The staff were very pleasant and welcoming on arrival, all were wearing masks, plenty of hand sanitizers around.

We hadn't booked but they had space for us on a Saturday Lunchtime. The food arrived promptly, it was very nice and cooked how we like it, we had steak and a mixed platter. Pudding was Churro banana sundae. Overall cost including drinks for 2 of us was just short of £40. Can't complain, decent price, good... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Poppy Scott doesn't like about Clock Tower Brewers Fayre:

Eat 2 nights, 1st night issue with printing orders, had to ask 3 times and took 25 minutes, very few people dining. 2nd night ordered dessert and waited 35 minutes, just about gave up to walk out as it appeared. Out on business, probably find another establishment next time in the area. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, Furthermore, the guests of the establishment enjoy the extensive variety of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, you'll find sweet delicacies, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
