kismat is the best Indian takeaway in grangemouth. I have another meal we didn't really like. reasonable prices too. would definitely recommend anyone who has not yet tried. the personal is also friendly. Waiting times can get quite long, depending on which time they order, but it is worth waiting. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Kismat:

just tries to order food, how long standing customers, my wife is highly trained women! when she tried to order food, the woman who had ordered not to understand what my wife demanded, the woman very rudely called someone and was overheard to say, I cannot understand what she says! if this is the type of employment coming from the staff, then kismat will get rid of our business definitiw! no happier customer read more.
