Visited for dinner in the Brasserie. Lovely surroundings and an excellent meal. Starters of salmon risotto and tempura cauliflower were very good, as were the mains pork belly and sweet potato curry. The affogato was lovely but there was so much Amoretto and espresso that a bit more ice cream would have been good. The staff were lovely but maybe need a bit more training. One didn't know what a Kir was and we had to a... read more.

The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. A visit to Grand Tynemouth is particularly valuable due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, for breakfast they serve a extensive breakfast here. Furthermore, there are many typically British dishes on the card that make the English heart beat faster, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
