We visited for a valentines meal having previously been to the Queen's Oak. There were items on the menu unavailable, which was a shame as due to allergies it left me quite limited. The calves live whist tasting nice was quite sinewy, my husbands food was lovely (apparently : What ruined the evening for us both was hearing the older waitress moaning about me when we left. This was extremely unprofessional and rude. £... read more. The Queen's Oak from Wokingham is valued for its tasty burgers, to which spicy fries, salads and other sides are provided, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the large variety of traditional dishes and love the typical English cuisine.
