Belgium/French cuisine with a twist, well-thought out dishes, full of flavour. Excellent service from our waiters who were all very attentive. The ambience of the restaurant was intimate and relaxing. read more. What User doesn't like about Den Dyver:

Dramatically understaffed. Stood awkwardly for ages waiting to be seated, staring into a restaurant without staff.

Waited 2.5 hours for the first course (just to find out it was the wrong order). Tables were a mess, no food was coming out of the kitchen. We arrived at 19.30 and left this fiasco at 23.15, a 4 hour dining experience with just a main course and some nuts as aperitif, costing us 200 euros due to all the... read more. With the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Den Dyver becomes even more attractive. You can also look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
