We are local couple and stumbled across this place 3 years ago. We haven't looked back. The team are always attentive and friendly. It is a very relaxing environment where you can forget about the world outside. The staff have a dry and warm sense of humour which is fab! The owner Paul is lovely. It is a small and cosy establishment where you can sit on a long table in the middle with other customers or on stools in... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WLAN is available without additional charges.

What User doesn't like about Smith Street Deli:

Lovely food totally let down by lack of customer service and oppressive owner, loads of rules do not s , wanting a take away was rudely told to wait by the door and stared at , purchased water and was viewed as if from outer space when had the audacity to ask for a takeaway cup to drink it ... food was very good though read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Smith Street Deli in South Hams traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, Additionally, you save time with the selection of ready-to-serve delicacies, without influencing the enjoyment. It should not be forgotten that there is a large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant.
