What User likes about Cakes The Difference: Lovely restaurant and very much enjoyed chatting with Zoe, a friendly and cute girl who supplies great scones and drinks even better than what I have tried in the National Gallery in London. By the way, sitting in front of the window admiring the great weather and the blue sky is another big gift today. Thank you and look forward to seeing you again. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What woollyideas doesn't like about Cakes The Difference:

The food, when it came, was fine. Nothing exceptional, but certainly not bad. The service was a different matter. The waitress was clearly having a bad day and doing her utmost not to engage with customers. There were only three tables being used, due to Covid restrictions, and none of the customers were ordering anything complicated because nothing complicated is on offer. It's just sandwiches, sausage rolls, cakes... read more.
