McGilverys always was the best fish and chips when they were located in Fox Valley. Their recent move to The Wortley Arms was a good enough reason to take my parents there for their 55th wedding anniversary. Good to report that the fish and chips are still absolutely amazing Mum said the pie was wonderful too. All the very best wishes to Wendy and Alan for their new venture. Absolutely, we'll be back. Very disappointed. We booked in for the Valentines meal and was made to wait 50mins for our starters. When they eventually arrived the food was cold. The meal was not up to the usual standard of the main restaurant which was a shame. The upstairs bar area was out of use and the whole evening was a bit of a let down. Regrettably we will not be booking the Valentines package again. read more.
