What BJHunt likes about Burr Co: We discovered this gem of a coffee shop quite by accident as we were nearby and found it on google, and we were so glad we did! It was busy but cosy and nicely appointed. I like a strong black Americano and my wife a hot chocolate, both were delicious. The coffee was lovely and strong and full flavoured and my wife's hot chocolate was frothy and marshmallow topped. We enjoyed the most delicious piece of moist lemon e... read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is free WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Mimlak doesn't like about Burr Co:

We were expecting to have some sort of breakfast here as the premises looked lovely on the outside and the inside is nice to . However the bacon on display was old and grey looking ,we asked if they had more, No we have to sell what 's there ...I opted for a Scottish potato cake and sausage bap . The sausage was a very cheap plastic textured sausage and a heavily deep fried dried potato cake . Don 't advertise breakf... read more.
