It's a very cheap cheerful falafel. It has a cafe/canteen style seating and the bread is standard small circular brown pita bread with nice enough falafel balls. You get that with a separate box where you can choose from a wide variety of salad fillers and saucers. It's one of the cheapest meals I had in Brussels so it's very good value.

However, the falafel itself, despite the the wide variety of the salad bar, is s... read more.
