surprisingly good food for a pub attached to a hotel; in any case on the square. I would definitely recommend eating here if they were looking for a fast meal or a few drinks. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Alexandra Green doesn't like about Chez Mal At Malmaison Belfast:

eating was bad. actual dishes were not like what was written on the menu. some ingredients were forgotten. the waitress was forgetful, did not pay attention to what was ordered, made unnecessary suggestions, as recommended, order sauce on the dish that already come with a lot of sauce. the whole experience was very bad, which is regrettable, how the place itself was beautiful.
