I used to live in London and Allpress were the first high-end coffee snare in Shoreditch before the middle-class dolls were ingested. They also have an amazing place in Dalston, where they fry and serve their machines. Her coffee is second to none (which says a lot in the more and more saturated coffee market). She has been in coffee for years and has worked with Allpress in her homeland Australia and knows her buzz... read more.

Nowadays one might start to consider possibly eating healthier; exactly for that reason, The Dark Horse Espresso's menu offers a large variety of easily digestible meals. The guests of the establishment also consider the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. Furthermore, there are many typically British meals on the menu that make the English heart beat faster. Additionally, they offer you typical Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
