3 of us visited today to enquire about catering for a small party. After he gave us a quote we decided to try out the food. We had chicken tikka, fish pakoras and shish kebabs. The chicken was very dry, when we tasted the kebabs which should have been lamb we couldn't figure out what they were. They tasted of chicken and fish? When I asked what they were made from the man said chicken, I always thought shish kebabs were lamb. All 3 of us have had stomach cramps and numerous visits to the bathroom since coming home. I definitely will not be visiting again and discouraging anyone else. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The original Asian fusion cuisine of the Punjabi Sweets Curry House from Sandwell - a delicious combination of proven and the unexpected, With original Indian spices, menus are tasty and freshly prepared.
