We came here Sunday for lunch and was not disappointed. We were 2 families with 4 kids between us and it was the only 90 minutes that we didn't hear them complain mini golf and the beach trampolines at the back were a god send as they could play these at a great price while we could watch them while sitting and enjoying a coffee. Great location, service was great and the food was fantastic. We did have a 30 min wait... read more.
When the weather is good you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Beach House Cafe:
Purely average fish and chips. Definitely not worth 45 min wait though. Ordered fish, chips and some battered sausage. They didn't seem to mind at all that they were "a little bit behind." read more.
