I loved our visit in the george abbot. we had the bark roast on Sunday and it was great. well made polly who was in the kitchen. danielle was behind the bar. She was really friendly and talked about the events that would soon appear; so we will come back for the band nights. even try one of the great selection of gins they have on the display. Staff were polite and helpful Drinks were nice However ... The chef needs retraining because the food was cold, the lasagne was over cooked and the portion was tiny. The peas from the fish and chips had been left and were freezing cold. The chips were cold. And the meals didn't come with everything that it stated. The bread on the garlic bread was rock hard. Reason we didn't send back was because we waited for the me... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: George Abbot in Guildford traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, And of course, you should also try the scrumptious burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges provided. In addition, you can order fresh prepared barbecue, the customers love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks.
