five stars for a very specific needs fulfilled. the 12 to 2am on Monday evening pub. really well controlled by vigilant security forces who keep this super drunk late evening place completely safe. surprisingly decent choice of beer, although not expecting to be the right craft, and they will always find a fun talk. I love the place. read more. What User doesn't like about The Elephant's Head:

One of my favourite places in Camden and good to see it open again. Especially the late nights I like. Very disappointed to be served Guinness like this on a quite Sunday afternoon and when I asked for a tissue rather than the barman clean the glass he handed me a handful of blueroll. I know after almost 50 years at the pub the landlord will be disappointed in staff servicing guinness like this read more.
