there are a few fish and chip stands in this area, but we were recommended to this. good honest, traditional fishing and chips at the sea. I had whitebait and chips, which was good and the white bait tasted very fresh. there was a waiting queue that is always a good sign, but everything was cooked within about 5 minutes at order. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Paul Wilks doesn't like about Ships Galley:

The worst fish and chips I've ever had, they should not be allowed to serve such terrible food to the public, I wouldn't feed it to a dog!! Food was cooked in really dirty oil and that was all you could taste, the fish was batter was rock hard and greasy to the point where it was dripping off, the chips were awful also cooked in really dirty oil and the fish was at least a week old! Situated on the sea front you expe... read more.
