By educating staff on hidden disabilities, and not snapping at children. We were made to feel very unwelcome upon entering, and a member of staff snapped at my 5 year old daughter who is neuro divergent. Needless to say we walked right back out, as my daughter got a fright, (she struggled to walk passed the shop later on), and found somewhere else to eat. I know times are hard right now, and fear is rife, but a littl... read more.
