I work nearby and tried this place last week. Very good service and the food is lovely they serve mainly Italian food but unlike other places their dishes don't make you feel super heavy after work. I recommend their ravioli for lunch and tiramisu for desert! read more. What User doesn't like about L'anima:

We enjoyed the food, and the staff were very responsiveness when we pointed out we were in a hurry but we didn't think we needed to, we only realised we had an issue after we waited 30 mins for our starters.... maybe we shouldn't have ordered starters, but we thought that being in the heart of the business district there would be an understanding that folks didn't have all day to dawdle.... that said, my tuna carpacc...
