I was there for dinner several times when I can remember (using to live in kingston) and that was always my favorite restaurant! eating everything is freshly cooked and if they want to change something (substituting something for something else, etc.) it is not a problem at all. very good selection of food and many dessert options also, I wish they would open more twofold so I could eat there again read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Catherine A doesn't like about The Souvlaki:

I'm Greek, I know what a good souvlaki looks and taste like. I also know hiw much a normal portion should be. We bought the large portion and surprisingly it had 2 souvlaki sticks in the boxx, the Large portion....the normal portion even in London area has 4 sticks. To pay £12.5 for the this low quality food and the reduced portion is simply unacceptable! That was the last time guys. Sorry! read more. At The Souvlaki in Kingston upon Thames, there's a diverse brunch for breakfast where you can eat as much as you want treat yourself, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Greek delicacies like Gyros and Souvlaki with matching sides are also offered in the restaurant.
