Here you can find the menu of Route 59 Cafe in Craven. At the moment, there are 17 meals and drinks on the card. Nestled just outside Skipton on a featureless main road, this charming café may be small—boasting only four indoor tables and additional outdoor seating—but it has earned a loyal following, particularly among bikers. The menu features typical fare, including cooked breakfasts and well-executed sandwiches, though some items can be bland and service may fluctuate during busy hours. With friendly staff and a warm atmosphere, the café is known for its engaging service. While the limited menu and restroom policy draw mixed reviews, many patrons appreciate the good quality food and welcoming vibe that beckons visitors to return.
