User likes about Route 59 Cafe:

I called into Route 59 after a friend recommended it. Although I only had coffee and a bacon sandwich, both were great quality and reasonably priced. I have to say this is one of the friendliest places I have visited. Audrey and

Bobby made us feel like we'd known them for years. If you're passing, drop in. If you're not passing, find an excuse to do so. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather. What bigbikes doesn't like about Route 59 Cafe:

This cafe is small with a badly laid out but good sized car park. It is on a main but featureless road just outside Skipton. It has biker information and notices but is used by a very mixed customer base. Food is typical fried fare and decent, if a bit slow when busy. There is an outdoor toilet and you have to ask for the key. read more. Route
