Super disorganised, slow service. It felt like everybody was being served before us, even people who had come later. They forgot one of the people's orders and didn't bring it until the rest were practically finished with their meal. The parmezan and bread were also brought at the end of the meal. The food was great and a good price (although they were not generous with the mushrooms in the risotto), so if you have a... read more.
