What User likes about Cafe Moor: Just excellent. Friendly guys serving, great food. Three different boureks, all great, refreshing mint tea, lovely flat bread. Loved it, and will be back very soon. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What FenrizST doesn't like about Cafe Moor: I used to visit here a lot but in the past have been heading to similar outlets in the area for falafel such as Turkish Delights in the market or albaba restaurant just around the corner. The falafel I had recently at cafe moor was very bland, and the chips were only just cooked. The other two places do better food and give you more for your money. read more.
