We used to love this place when it was in Portrush. Back then, the menu was a proper tapas and extensive. However, this is not a tapas restaurant by any stretch of the imagination, and playing Spanish music in the background doesn't make it one. The food was just okay, but the triple-cooked chips were horrendous and looked like a potato cut into four because they were so big! Sadly, we won't be back. read more. The Ocho Tapas Bistro from Coleraine serves dishes that you can find all over Europe, Spanish meals with their tasty savory sauces and spices are popular among the visitors. Furthermore, there are light Mediterranean meals on the menu, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
