You can't leave Edinburgh without tasting the birthday cake. It's just the best! Trust me... I'm a cake lover and that was the best I tried in a while, it was perfect!! Besides, it was a large part for a cake, you can easily share (but it is so delicious that you may not want). The service was also very nice, they were very attentive and smiling. We had no booking, but it wasn't so full so we could find a table. Late... read more. What User doesn't like about Laila Lunch Brunch, Cockburn Street, Edinburgh:

Great decor but average food. However, they offer some very interesting options that you likely won't find elsewhere like the satay French toast. Seating and service can be very slow given that they get busy. Would definitely try to revisit and update the score after I try other food options as they are one of few halal food places that are offering something different. read more.
