What User likes about The Point Cafe: Visited this cafe for the first time just a week ago looking for a good old Full English Breakfast, and we were not disappointed.. For the price, the size of the breakfast was great, a huge plat full of everything (double) all freshly cooked, and served without any long waiting time. We arrived as a family of ten hungry adults and children and left full for the day. i would recommend this cafe tp all. Not sure if thi... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Point Cafe: Possibly the worst I have ever had, fish and chips twice with peas and gravy for £13. Lots of chips but all very well done and not freshly cooked or recent either, ended up not either, the fish long and thin, OK but only 5 out of ten but did eat that. Gravy pot lid not on so mostly all in bag, peas were bullets. Ended up with a fish sandwich. My recommendation go round the corner to either of the other 2 or pizza sho... read more.
