Borough Market was great. Went with 3 teen-agers who loved the hot food section when we found it. The food was amazing and such a great variety! Good for all ages and ideal for a couple of hours 'mooch around'. The best 'pop up' for us was the hot crumble dessert place which was just the BEST!!! read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Mia Shaw doesn't like about Borough:

the service is also friendly, but the coffee was just not much. I ordered a long black, which every place that knows its salt in 2012 is different from an americano. short, stronger, no danger of milk. what was done automatically was a big americano (sold at the higher price – without asking) which was later too weak. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Borough in Southwark traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Particularly with the bite-sized, Tapas you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate.
