What Lucas Raymond likes about Camellia's: had tee here for five of us this afternoon, it was absolutely fantastic, we had to take some home while we were fighting to eat it. we could not fail any of this and it was worth the £9.50 we called ahead when some of us were vegetarian and it was not too much effort for them to replace the meat option for us. well done and thanks to many. I would highly recommend. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What michaelsZ3182DF doesn't like about Camellia's:

Food is good but the service is very poor. The staff are so miserable and offhand. I wouldn't recommend this place at all as the well below expected attitude makes the visit intolerable Much better places around. Something is very wrong there . Probably the most unfriendly service I have encountered in a long while. read more. A visit to Camellia's is particularly valuable due to the large range of coffee and tea specialties, the menu also includes delicious vegetarian recipes. Additionally, there are a plethora of iconic British dishes on the menu guaranteed to satiate every Anglophile's hunger, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
