This is a proper pub run by nice friendly staff with considerate senior manager/owners Why not try ThePound in Leebotwood if you like this one as it's owned by the same team as the Green Dragon Good beer and great food at very fair prices at both pubs Very popular so book if you can but don't miss it If the weather holds up you can eat outside at either too! read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its visitors, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Anne S doesn't like about The Green Dragon:

Went for my birthday lunch and was pleased to see good vegetarian options and ordered the falafel, chickpea and hummus salad. Which was a main meal for £15 new potatoes, salad, roasted chickpeas, hummus, falafel etc. I had a starter of falafel and hummus dumped in front of me. When I said I had ordered the salad of the menu The waitress said I had ordered a starter and she knew what I meant and brought me back some u... read more.
